CRUISER PROTET TO VISIT HAWAII

LIEUT. STUTZ ARRIVES BY ALAMEDA TO JOIN VESSEL AT THIS PLACE—MAIL FOR CRUISER.

The rocking warship, the French cruiser Protet, is to visit Honolulu shortly. The vessel has been stationed in the South Seas with her headquarters at Papeete, Tahiti, the French colony, ever since she was last at this place. She is now evidently making an extended cruise to northern waters.

Lieutenant F. H. Stutz of the French navy arrived this morning by the S. S. Alameda from San Francisco to await the arrival of the Protet at this place. He will join the vessel at Honolulu. The Alameda brought 13 sacks of mail for the Protet. The postal authorities took charge of this mail matter and will hold it until the arrival of the vessel. What the destination of the Protet will be after she leaves Honolulu is not known here, but she will probably go either to San Francisco or else the Far East.

AMERICA MARU HELD IN JAPAN

THE LINER IMPRESSED INTO SERVICE AS AUXILIARY CRUISER WHILE ON WAY HITHER.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 9.—The Japanese liner America Maru of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha Company was scheduled to leave Yokohama today for this city, but yesterday was impressed into the service of Japan, and will, therefore, remain on the Asiatic coast. Her sister ships, the liners Nippon Maru and Hongkong Maru, were early commandeered by the Japanese Government at the outbreak of the war with Russia, and were fitted out as transports. The America Maru was also intended for such service, but later was released and returned to the regular line connecting this city with Japan and China. She has made two voyages since then.

SHE LECTURED ON HAWAII.

Among the arrivals by the S. S. Alameda this morning was Miss H. B. Winston, the author of "Waters That Pass Away." She passed her winter at Honolulu last season. Since her return to the mainland she has done good missionary work for these islands. The Richmond, Va., News Leader has the following about her:

"Miss Nannie B. Winston charmed her audience at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon, when she gave an informal talk on Honolulu. Miss Winston is a brilliant conversationalist and possesses in a high degree the faculty of imparting her knowledge to others. She enunciates clearly and her descriptions of the scenery, life and customs of Honolulu were given in a most fascinating style. Miss Winston is the authoress of several books and has frequently contributed articles to leading magazines in the country. Later light refreshments were served. Miss Lou Knox poured tea, and coffee was served by Mrs. Emmitt Morton."
